

THE VETERANS' COLONY IS O. K.

St. Cloud Warmly Indorsed by the Comrades and Their Wives. The Best New Town in the United States.

Read This—Cut It Out.

Last March I received a letter from The National Tribune Company, a well-known and reliable publishing house of Washington, D. C., offering a five-acre tract of land and a city lot in their new St. Cloud Colony, in Florida, for $100. Knowing that the National Tribune people to be absolutely reliable and correct in every way, I wired them to reserve two five-acre tracts and two city lots for me, which they did. A month later—last April—when in Florida, I went to St. Cloud and found a wide-awake, up-to-date little city of 2,500 people, and more arriving every day, and my two lots, without the 10 acres of ground, worth $400, now worth $500. Seven months before that there was not a single dwelling there, except a shanty occupied by the engineers surveying the ground and platting it for settlers. On account of many more going there this Fall and Winter, St. Cloud will have a population of 5,000 to 6,000 by next Spring, and lots and tracts costing only $100 a few months ago will be worth from $300 to $1,500 each. Now the same company is offering another opportunity, even better than the St. Cloud deal, because a railroad and two cities will be built in one of the most beautiful and healthful sections of the United States, in Florida—Irvine C. Sanders, 700 North Madison avenue, Peoria, Ill. Residence, old phone Main 5284—Peoria Evening Star, Peoria, Ill., Oct. 28, 1910.

Had a Good Garden This Year.

Editor National Tribune: I left my old home in Idaho last April with a very sick wife, and had to stop at various places on my way here on her account. My lots are on Delaware avenue. When I arrived the street had not been fully opened up, and when I spoke to President Linn about it he immediately ordered the street contractor to clear out Delaware avenue. Now, I want to know if there is another land company that would, for one large settler, change their plans and clean out a whole street. I have been three times in California, and in all my experience I have never found a company, as here, always willing to do the right thing with everybody. I know of a great many exchanges being made of property where the settlers did not like their location. I had a good garden this year, and raised plenty of Irish potatoes, beets, Bermuda onions, peas, carrots, cucumbers, radishes, etc. Last September I set out two-year-old peach trees, and they bore peaches this year. I had an offer to sell out the other day, but St. Cloud is good enough for me. I have a good well of water. I put it down 105 feet, although many people are getting water from wells 10 to 20 feet deep. In regard to the summer, will say that I found it very agreeable and healthy. Yours in F. C. and L.—Z. Barager, St. Cloud, Fla., Oct. 2, 1910.

Spent Seven Years in Florida and Likes St. Cloud.

Editor National Tribune: I consider your paper the comrades' true friend, and I write to say that after spending several winters in Florida, with great benefit to my health, I closed up my affairs in the North and came here seven years ago last November and settled in Pasco County, and have only been out of the State twice in that time, once to the Jamestown Exposition and to the recent G. A. R. Encampment at Atlanta City. I joined the colony here with the first settlers. I have been well over Florida, and this St. Cloud section averages as good as the best locations and I like it. We have a variety of soils here, from the deep muck, or cypress lands to the high, dry pine lands, where the best citrus fruits will grow. I heard stories when I came to Atlantic City, that the colony was detrimental to our colony, some of them coming from comrades who know nothing whatsoever of the colony here. I do not understand why men are induced to tell stories to damage sections where thousands of their comrades are located and well satisfied. We have some kickers here, but that is not my idea of doing things. If I did not like a place, I would put my things on the cars and go away. However, St. Cloud is going to keep on growing and become a credit to the men who projected the colony, as well as those who are here and making it such a fine community. Fraternally yours—T. E. Merton, Co. I, 1634 Ohio, St. Cloud, Fla., Sept. 29, 1910.

Social St. Cloud.

"Kind hearts are more than coronets and simple faith than Norman blood." Newcomers to St. Cloud are not required to show their bank books nor give their genealogies prior to the Revolutionary War to gain admission to the homes and hearts of the people. A large majority of St. Cloud citizens are comrades of the civil war, and they have much in common. There are a good many sons of veterans and their friends among the citizenship of the city, and are all friends.

In Cold and Snow.

Editor National Tribune: Jas. Hobbs, Sergeant, Co. D, 21st Mo., in The National Tribune, writes of his services, and says that he was in 1864 in the campaign in Arkansas and Missouri, chasing Gen. Sterling Price's army into the wilds of Kansas. Does he remember about the 11th Mo. man who fell into the well one dark night while on the march from Duvall's Bluff, Ark., to Brownsville? It was in a town where nothing but chimneys and wells were left. Maj. Gen. Joe Mower, who was in command, said that if any 11th Mo. man knew no better than to fall into a well he ought to be hanged. The campaign of 17 days upon seven days' rations was one of terrible suffering. Later in western Missouri, the many long marches day and night, the 16-mile march after midnight of Oct. 23 thru Independence, Mo., and on to Big Blue River at Westport, seven miles from Kansas City, where at sunrise the rebels cut their way thru Gen. Blunt's cavalry ranks and got away, saving us the fighting. That battlefield is now in the park owned by Kansas City. Does he remember the snow storm of Nov. 3 (16 inches in depth) and the terrible cold that night? We had no wooden blankets, and then a hard march to St. Louis, 181 miles, in nine days. I remember Nashville and Eastport, where we ate corn and corn meal, and the Spanish Fort campaign. H. Warren Phelps, First Lieutenant, Co. H, 95th Ohio, Columbus, O.

Sounds Heard Long Distances. Editor National Tribune: Comrades E. M. Brice and R. W. Evans write about hearing sounds of cannonading and explosions long distances. The explosion of powder, shells and other explosives, which occurred at Mobile, Ala., about June 8, 1865, was heard and felt distinctly at Enterprise, Miss., 30 miles away. I was lying on the ground in the shade at Enterprise when I very distinctly felt a shock and heard a rumbling sound. The next morning we heard the reports about the explosion. I later, on June 15, saw the wrecked buildings when I visited Mobile, as I find in my diary. I believe that many of the ex-soldiers of the North should go South and engage in business. The Southern people appreciate Northern business enterprise.—H. Warren Phelps, Columbus, O.

FREE TREATMENT To Victims of These Diseases

You Can Cure Yourself at Home With It—I Will Send It to Your Address Without a Penny of Charge.

Don't Turn This Page; Don't Doubt, But Read What I Have to Say!

Are You One of the 60 Per Cent?

In arranging with The National Tribune for this page announcement, I felt sure of the attention of sixty per cent of its readers—and that means thousands of people. According to official statistics, 60 out of 100 persons of both sexes have either kidney, bladder or rheumatic disease, and according to my practice—for these diseases are my specialty—I should say that the percentage is even greater than sixty. These people should be interested in what I have to say and to offer. They ought to read every word on this page and then act on the suggestions it contains.

If you have any form of uric acid trouble, such as kidney, bladder or rheumatic disease, I can be of great help to you. You may have doctor for years, either with your local doctor or with drug store remedies, or with both, and yet you need me, for the cure of these diseases has been my life work. I have something that will be new to you, something different; a combination of remedies that have proven their worth.

All I ask of any sufferer is that he or she make a trial of my method of treatment. And this trial will cost you nothing. Surely you cannot refuse it on this basis. Whether your case is of recent origin, or even if you are "cured of doctors" even if you think your case is hopeless, I urge you to try just once again. Write me a description of how you suffer or ill out the coupon, and I will study your case and send you a free trial treatment. I have done this favor to thousands of people in all parts of the country, and the letters of praise I receive show the good work I am doing.

I am asking you for no money—the free treatment is free. And wherever I say free I mean free, for I would not pervert the columns of The National Tribune. I offer to send you or any afflicted reader of this paper a free test treatment. All I ask of you is that you use this free treatment as directed—and the directions are very simple. I will "stand or fall" on what this free treatment does in YOUR case.

It is through this free proof treatment that I am able to introduce my unique method of treating kidney, bladder and rheumatic diseases. Who can complain when no money is asked? I do not even ask more of your time than it takes to fill out the Free Certificate. If I asked you for money before treating you, as other doctors do, you might have reason to hesitate, especially if you have spent much time and money in trying to find a cure. But I am asking you for no money. Surely that ought to appeal to the most skeptical readers of The National Tribune, and certainly to all the fair-minded.

My proposition is simply this: To you or to any other sufferer from kidney, bladder or rheumatic diseases, I offer to send, direct to the home, a free trial treatment with directions so that you can cure yourself at home. I ask nothing of you beyond a description of your case in the form of a letter, or the coupon properly filled out. Mail me a letter or the coupon and you will promptly receive the free treatment. I am a specialist in these diseases and have made them my life study. My international success should prove my financial reliability and professional worth, and any remedies I send you, you can rely upon having been guaranteed to the Government as to their purity. Let me hear from you today.

FREE TREATMENTS FOR ALL. The number of free treatments that I am prepared to send out is only limited by the number of requests. Since thousands need it, thousands should write. The free trial treatment will prove to you what I claim, that I have remedies that will cure, have cured, and are curing kidney, bladder and rheumatic diseases. These remedies are all guaranteed as to purity. On the box containing the free treatment you will find a list of the ingredients—it is the very prescription itself. Fill out the coupon and send for this grand free treatment. Know that I will send you a copy to cure yourself at home when the right remedies are sent you.

FREE MEDICAL BOOK. There is a natural curiosity on the part of sufferers to know more about their disease. To fill this demand I have written a book called "How Can I Get Well?" In its pages you will find the answer to this question. It is thoroughly illustrated and describes in detail, giving full list of symptoms, all forms of rheumatism and all diseases of the kidneys and the bladder. It tells what Uric Acid poison is, how it acts and what it results in. It explains how any person can tell what his disease is, and how to cure it. My method of treating these diseases, giving the ingredients of my remedies and the names of eminent doctors in this country and abroad who endorse them. We believe it is the most valuable book for the layman ever written on these diseases, and many have said they consider it the most valuable book in their library. I will send you a copy with the free treatment, as I consider it a big help to my patients.

ABOUT TESTIMONIALS. Some people say they don't believe in testimonials. But that is like saying your neighbor is a liar, for your very neighbor may have written me a testimonial saying he is cured. I have hundreds of testimonials of cures and they come from all parts of the United States and Canada, from villages, towns and cities. I have hundreds of them printed and will send them to you. Your friend and neighbor may be among them, and when you find a familiar name write the party down, and the testimonial may be of great value to you. I have gained all this success as a specialist at the disposal of my patients. My testimonials are all true. A lady in Monticello, Ill., wrote over fifty of my patients asking them if my statement that I cured them was true, and was answered favorably. I will send you any number of written endorsements from reliable people.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE. When I receive your coupon your case it will enable me to know just what your condition is and what you need. ### REUNIONS HELD.

The 12th Ohio.

The 36th annual Reunion of the 12th Ohio was held in Memorial Building, Cincinnati, Sept. 22. Forty-two members responded, and many letters were read from absent comrades. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Lloyd Stockman, Carlisle, O.; Vice President, Samuel A. West, Cincinnati, O.; Chaplain, Rev. W. P. Jackson, Blanchester, O.; Treasurer, Ed. R. Grim, Morrow, O.; Corresponding Secretary, Josiah Holbrook, Lebanon, O.; Secretary, J. D. Compton, Covington, Ky.

The following deaths were reported: H. C. Parker, Co. A; Wm. H. Madden, Co. B; Thomas A. Sanders, Co. C; Joseph C. and Milt Newport, Co. F; J. H. Devore, Co. H; Wm. Hirsch, Co. I; Chas. W. James and Jacob Shack, Co. K.

Can You Equal It?

At the National Encampment at Atlantic City, six members of the 14th

Mass. Battery held a Reunion at the Southern Hotel, Virginia avenue. Can any other single company of all the great Union Army that was represented at that Encampment equal that record? We doubt it. Six members of one company, representing five Posts of the G. A. R., a long way from home, 45 years after the muster out. Those present were: Charles Sanborn and Gen. Sanborn, of Post 15; Bill Ricker, of Post 10; Tom Montgomery, of Post 30; Wallace Kenney, of Post 68, and Solon C. Gilmore, of Post 129, all of the Department of Massachusetts.

The 55th Ill.

The 14th Biennial Reunion of the 55th Ill. was held at Prairie City, Ill., Oct. 12 and 13. There were present 44 of the old comrades, and several of them brought their wives. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Maj. G. F. Hand, President; John G. Brown, Vice President; Alfred Mead, Secretary and Treasurer; D. N. Holmes, Assistant Secretary.

Cattaraugus County Veterans.

The meeting of the Cattaraugus County Veterans' Association was held in the armory at Olean, N. Y., Oct. 5, and was one of the most successful in the history of the organization. It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Association at Franklinville. A stirring address was made by Rev. L. F. Ruf, which was listened to with great interest by the veterans. The election of officers for the Association resulted as follows: President, L. Y. Miller, of Olean; Vice President, J. A. Seelink, of Little Valley; Treasurer, J. A. Andrews, of Salamanca; Secretary, S. J. Daniels, of Olean. The County Association of the Woman's Relief Corps also met and chose the following officers for the coming year: Mrs. J. D. Case, of Franklinville, President; Mrs. N. Kerr, of Olean, Vice President; Mrs. Silver, of Portville, Second Vice President; Mrs. Becker, of Olean, Chaplain; Mrs. M. Fairchild, of Portville, Treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Winters, of Olean, Secretary; Mrs. Maria Mead, of Olean, Counselor.

It would seem that any reader so afflicted would write the doctor at once, since no money is involved and the endorsements he has to offer are from such a high and trustworthy source. Surely it may be recommended that you give his method of treatment a free trial, as you put yourself under no obligations in any way, either now or in the future.

WHICH OF THESE SYMPTOMS HAVE YOU GOT?

You can't afford to ignore any of the symptoms given below. Separately and combined they spell disease. They represent, in one form or another, the worst of Uric Acid diseases—Kidney trouble, Bladder trouble, or Rheumatism. It may only be the aching back today, but what will it be in a month from now if you let it go unattended? If your sleep is disturbed now but once a night through bladder trouble, check the inflammation at once, today! I am treating hundreds who got up as often as seven and eight times a night. Don't you wait until it runs into cystitis.

It is the pain in the nerves, the crink in the muscles, the wrench in the bones—which symptoms many think nothing of when they first feel them—that in the end result in chronic rheumatism.

If yours is a new case or an old case there is but one sensible thing to do—get proper treatment now. Don't stand on your past experience—you can still be cured if you get the right treatment. The least you can do is to try what I am willing to send you free.

Active to the End.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe retained to the very last all of her wonderful faculties. Mentally she was probably just as bright as she had been at any time during the last 60 years. As an evidence of her surprising vigor and activity, her publishers, Houghton, Mifflin & Co., state: "Within a week of her death she was arranging with us for the publication this Autumn of a volume of Later Poems, Mrs. Howe's 'Reminiscences,' published in 1899 by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., cover a period of eighty years. In them she describes most interestingly the persons she has known, the wonderful events she witnessed, the scenes which inspired her to write the immortal 'Battle Hymn of the Republic,' and the various causes which have enlisted her judgment, her voice and her pen."

While Mrs. Howe has written about two or three volumes of poetry, there is but one of her poems that ever took hold of the public heart, and that was her "Battle Hymn of the Republic," which was sung to its old tune by a great chorus of voices at her funeral. It can be said without fear of successful contradiction that this poem at least was inspired just as truly, probably, as Lincoln's Gettysburg address was inspired.

Taps Sounded.

Frederick M. Hemmerling, Co. D, 39th Ill., died at his home in Cedar Falls, Ill., Sept. 21. The pallbearers, who were chosen by Comrade Hemmerling about a month ago when he felt that death was approaching, were Capt. George Snowden, of Waterloo, his old army Captain; Thomas Deening, 39th Ill.; H. C. Hemenway, George Philpot, Henry Stiles and Martin Vantilberg. Comrade Hemmerling is survived by his widow and six children.

The Cross Family in the War.

Florida E. Cross, Wolcott, N. Y., is compiling a list of the members of the Cross family who served in any of the United States wars. Anyone who can furnish her with information on this head will confer an obligation.
